

STORY OF ONE TRUE ARTIST OF THE HILLS

N. E. GALLOWAY, NOW IN TULSA, HAS REMARKABLE TALENT.

$8,000 COLLECTION GONE

Fire Destroyed His Most Beautiful Pieces. Exhibits One Piece Here.

The collection is missing but there were no funds large enough to purchase the pictures. The $8,000 has not been replaced by the artist, but he has given his services to the city. He is now in Tulsa and will be in touch with the authorities to see what can be done to help him.

The Commercial End.

The commercial side of business has been the most important factor in the growth of the city. The increase in population has led to the construction of many new buildings, both residential and commercial.

Our Weakness and Loss of Appetite

The loss of appetite is a common complaint among the people of Tulsa. This is due to the fact that the people have been living on a diet of meat and vegetables, which are not easily digested.

Half of Permits During July Were for Residential.

The number of permits issued during July was 1,000, of which 500 were for residential purposes.
